Headline:
Fog patches clearing to warm sunny spells.

Today:
Locally chilly at first, with areas of mist and fog gradually lifting to reveal warm sunny spells. Becoming fine during the afternoon, but perhaps cloudier from the northwest later in the day. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry during the evening, with clear spells allowing mist and fog patches to reform. Thicker cloud should arrive in the north towards dawn, perhaps culminating in patchy rain here. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Sunday:
Soon becoming generally cloudy from the north, with the odd spot of drizzle possible for a time. Gradually becoming drier, brighter and fresher later, with many seeing sunny spells. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Plenty of dry weather through the period, with winds remaining light. Temperatures should be close to average, albeit with some cooler nights than of late.
